SUNDAY SCHOOL RENDERS PROGRAM AT M. E. CHURCH

An excellent Easter program was rendered by the children at the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school Sunday morning. The program consisted of recitations, songs and addresses by the members of the primary, junior and intermediate departments. Short talks were given by Lambert Heaton and W. S. James. After the Sunday school program by the children Rev. G. A. Allison preached a short sermon.

ALL URGED TO ATTEND

First Victory Liberty Loan Meeting This Evening at 8 o'clock

IN FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The first public meeting in the interests of the Victory Liberty Loan will be held at the First Christian church this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. It is the earnest wish of Chairman John D. Berryman that the auditorium of the church be crowded to the utmost, to hear the interesting address to be delivered by W. S. VanDyke, of Pittsburgh, who will be the principal speaker of the evening. All members of committees and workers are also urged to be present and receive the inspiration that such a meeting is bound to create.

Lieut. C. O. Devore, who served in the army overseas, and who was attached to the 29th Division, will also speak briefly of the experiences of the men while in the trenches. Prof. Daniel is in charge of the music, which means that this feature will be well taken care of.

The campaign started off this morning under the most favorabe circumstances. Quite a number of bond sales have already been made, and prospects are bright for a very successful campaign. One man reported at local headquarters at 10 o'clock this morning that he had already disposed of $750 in bonds and the outlook splendid for largely increasing that amount. All local workers are optimistic and feel that the campaign to sell the Charleroi quota of $879,700 will be successful.

Thomas Glasgow.

Thomas Glasgow of 427 Reed avenue Monessen, died Saturday morning. Funeral services will be held in the Methodist church, Schoonmakr avenue, and Fourth street, Monessen on Tuesday afternoon, April 22 at 2 o'clock. The services will be in charge of Monessen lodge F. & A. M. Members will report at the lodge room in Monessen at 1 p. m.

Hermit Jim's Last Sacrifice

No one ever knew where Hermit Jim Hudson came from. None knew his story.

One day he was discovered in a little shack built of refuse lumber from the dump down by the river. And there he lived for forty years. In summer he fished, worked a little, but never talked of himself. In winter he hibernated, so to speak.

He was a big, upstanding two-fisted fellow, capable of much, but utterly indifferent to all about him. He was an enigma, a mystery, a town character.

As the years passed Hermit Jim lost his robustnesss of figure and what remained of his ambition to work. Finally, at seventy, the sheriff took him in charge and carted him off to the poor farm. Hermit Jim was a mere skeleton, his clothes in tatters, and his feet bound in burlap in place of shoes. His cupboard was almost as bare as Mother Hubbard's, yet right, there he voiced the only complaint he had ever been known to make. His shack was his castle, he declared, and should be respected.

Finally, however, he capitulated, but not without protest. "I'm not objecting to having more to eat of a better bed, Sheriff," he conceded, in English quite out of keeping with his condition, "but I don't like the prospective finish. It's a poor climax to my early training and ambitions." Then, despite the sheriff's efforts to draw him out, he became a clam again.

Only once more he discussed his case. They were then in sight of the poor house. "My life has been a failrue, Sheriff," he declared, staring blankly ahead. "Why, doesn't particularly matter. I've been captain of my soul for sixty years, but a poor pilot, maybe," he chuckled mirthlessly. "I've a better start than most men, but things broke wrong. I lost ambition, interest in life, care for thhe future and regard for respectability. I've been a lone wolf."

Suddenly he straightened and his eyes flashed with a new light. "God, Sheriff, how I might have died had this war come half a century earlier! Maybe in a fight with a birdman three miles in the air! Maybe going over the top in the gray of the morning! Maybe hand to hand with my fingers digging into a boche's throat! And maybe far behind the firing line from a biff on the head from a bit of shrapnel! But anyway, any where, gloriously! For humanity! Democracy! Liberty! What a death, Sheriff; what a death!"

"Jim," said the sheriff, with a new strange softness in his voice, "I've been told that you bought a thousand dollar Liberty Bond last October. I've never believed it. But, old fellow, somehow now I do. Did you?"

Hermit Jim chuckled. This time it echoed the glee of the thrush singing in the haw bush by the roadside.

"Yes, sheriff, I bought it. And this morning, knowing that you were coming after me, I used it in kindling the fire to cook my breakast. I reckoned I probagly would stay here the rest of my life.

"It was the only way I could do my bit toward finishing the job."

Splendid Attendance At Easter Services

Easter was fittingly observed at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church on Sunday. The day began with a sunrise prayer meeting, which was largely attended, Miss Helen Fleming, a member of the Christian Endeavor Society, led the meeting and two papers, by the Misses Bella Geho and Nell Ryland, with a reading by Mrs. Wayne Blackburn, made an interesting program. Special exercises were held in the Sunday school room at 9:45 a. m. At the morning preaching services fifteen new members were received, and every seat in the auditorium was taken.

Sunday night the choir gave a cantata that was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The house was crowded and chairs were used wherever possible. The soloists were Miss Emma Clutter, Miss Blanche Allison, Curtis Collins and Donald Eneix. The front of the church made a pretty appearance with palms, ferns and flowers in profusion about the pulpit, and extending across the choir loft. The lady members of the choir were dressed in white and the effect was pleasing. The chorus numbers vere especially well rendered and the choir was congratulated on producing one of the best Easter cantatas in recent years. The church had striven to receive fifty members for the New Era quota, and it was announced last night that the number had been reached, that the church had again gone over the top, fifty seven being the number received in the Easter campaign.

Kulow—Travis.

Miss Grace M. Travis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Travis of Battle Creek, Michigan, and Theopolis P. Kulow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kulow of Charleroi, were married at Battle Creek, on April 19th. Mr. Kulow and his bride arrived in Charleroi Sunday morning, where they will visit with Mr. Kulow's parents on Crest avenue. After a short furlough Mr. Kulow will return to Camp Custer, where he is serving in the United States army.

As a result of a disagreement among the members of the Donora board of health, that borough is now without the services of a health officer. The president, Dr. J. A. Sprowls refused to vote for J. B. McCune and as a consequence the office at the present time is vacant. McCune was charged with having too many side issues to look after.

REPORT LESS FOOD IN COLD STORAGE

Considerably less food was held in the cold storage plants of the State under State supervision in Pennsylvania on April 1, than a year ago, with the exception of eggs, which are going into storage slightly earlier than usual. A summary of the reports made to Dairy and Food Commissioner James Foust just issued shows over three-quarters of a million dozen of eggs in storage on April 1 against 188,000 dozens a year ago.

Thhe reduction of deposits is accounted for by the fact that there is a bigger demand for certain foods and that the poultry trade has been absorbing the chickens and ducks instead of allowing them to remain in storage. The figures were summarized from 29 plants reporting beef, 22 pork, 224 eggs, 11 butter, 21 poultry, 10 mutton and 8 fiish.

Will Give an Exhibition at Hour Convenient To Public

IS NOW ON ITS ITINERARY

The army tank, now touring this section of Pennsylvania, will visit Charleroi on Wednesday evening, being scheduled here from Fayette City at 6:15 o'clock.

The tank began its tour from Uniontown at 8 o'clock this morning, going from there to Masontown, thence to New Salem and Republic, and will arrive in Brownsville this evening at 6 o'clock.

On Tuesday the tank will leave Brownsville at 8 a. m., and will visit West Brownsville, Centerville, Coal Center and California, where it will spend the night.

Wednesday morning it will leave California at 8 o'clock, going to Beallsville and Bentleyville, then coming to Charleroi, where the men in charge will take dinner. It is scheduled to arrive at 11:45 a. m., with one hour for dinner, leaving at 1:00 o'clock for West Belle Vernon, and also visiting Belle Vernon and Fayette City in the afternoon, leaving Fayette City at 5:30 and returning to Charleroi at 6:15.

While no definite time is fixed it is presumed from the schedule that the exhibitions will be given in the evening, at a point to be designated by the local committee, presumably either at the mouth of Maple Creek or near the bathing beach.

Rolla Hormell, chairman of the local tank committee, will likely join the tank party at Brownsville tomorrow morning and stay with it until the machine is turned over to Monessen some time early Thursday morning.

Originally the tank had been scheduled to come straight down the river from West Brownsville but the conditions of the roads made this impossible, hence a change was necessary in routing it.

VESTA IS OPERATING BUT ONE STEAMER

AMERICAN TOMMIES.

The like of this war, with its mix up of flags, peoples and races, was never before seen and probably will never be seen ag'n in a thousand years. Consider, for example—one example out of thousands—the story of those 600 American Tommies who recently arrived on the Mauretania, were released at Camp Mills, and then dropped into New York happy as kings to "be Yankees again" after four years of fighting under the British flag. Not that they regretted or were disgusted: they had nothing but good words for the British. From British army officers at Camp Mills, each received 28 days pay and ration money, a ticket for home, and a certificate from the immigration inspectors. Moreover, each American Tommy carried in his pocket a personal greeting from King George and Queen Mary wishing him godspeed to his "home and dear ones" and expressing the thanks of "a grateful mother country" for his courage, devotion and splendid service.

Many Americans fighting with the French or British got themselves transferred to their own flag, but the war covered too much ground and our part in it was too short for this to be accomplished in all cases. The Mauretania's 600 remained Tommies to the end, representing various branches of the British army, including the Highlanders, and all of them after four years acquiring more or less of a Cockney accent. Some of them have black faces, New Yorkers were stunned to see happy negroes walking about in the uniform of the Highland regiments, tam o' shanters, plaid skarts, bare knees and all. The spectacles of this war of wars. Think of one of these negro Highlanders starting on a coon hunt with gun and dog in all the glory of his plaid kilt and bare knees as soon as he gets home! In the language of the street, can you beat it?

MUSICAL PROGRAM AT FIRST YRESBYTERIAN

Sunday evening the choir of the First Presbyterian church presented a well rendered musical program, in which the story of the resurrection was told by solos and chorus numbers. Mrs. R. H. Rush, Mrs. Ralph M. Hickey, Miss Mabel Orange and Ralph M. Hickey were the soloists. Accompanists were played by Misses Leila Orange, George D. Clark. A Four Minute speaker talked on the Victory Loan. Devotions were in charge of the pastor of the church, Rev. C. A. Keller.

RIVA IS AGAIN ON W. & J. RELAY TEAM

Washington and Jefferson College's relay team which is to compete in Philadelphia on Saturday next is made up of H. H. Phillips, of Pittsburg, Edmund Riva, of Charleroi, Paul J. Lally of Niles, Ohio, and Byron Covalt of Wilkinsburg. This is the second time Riva has been on the team, winning a place last year by his excellent work, and doing the same thing this year in the competitive trials. This relay team is said to be one of the best ever presented by W. & J., and great things are expected in the contests which are to take place on Saturday next.

CHARGED WITH SELLING DECOMPOSED VEGETABLES

Jan Falamara, who conducts the fruit stand at the corner of Fifth street and Fallowfield avenue, was arrested by Health Officer Darby this morning on a charge of selling and having to sell vegetables unfit for human consumption and for interfering with the health officer in the discharge of his duty. Falamara put up a forfeit of $10 for a hearing before Burgess Woodward this evening at 7 o'clock. The defendant is said to have sold and offered for sale asparagus that was in a state of decomposition.

Can We Forget?

FOR four red years France was flayed by war. Her soul as well as her body was tortured and torn.

For eighteen months America stood under that same fire of strife.

Now we believe that it is ended—that the days of actual fighting have ceased

Our soldiers are coming home. Those of France who have homes left to go to are returning to theirs. But seventy thousands of young Americans will never come home. And millions of the soldiers of our Allies will remain buried there at their sides.

For thousands and millions of families this war will never be over

We are asked now to express our thanks for the saving of other thousands and millions. The Victory Liberty Loan is the way we are going to do it

GREATER ACTIVITY IN COAL BUSINESS

Conditions in the coal business have so far improved that the mines in the Pittsburg district are now working almost 70 per cent of capacity. Figures just compiled for the week ending April 12 show the production was 60 per cent, as against an average production of 52 per cent in March. The second week of April shows an increase over the first of almost nine per cent, two per cent of which is attributable to an increase in the normal local consumption.

In the first week of this month coal was going from Pittsburg to the lakes at the rate of 10 per cent of production. In the second week it had increased to 15 per cent. It is now moving lakeward at the rate of about 600 cars a day.

MEMBERSHIP GROWS IN GOOD ROADS BODY

On Friday a well attended meeting of the executive committee of the Washington County Good Roads Association was held at the county seat at which many matters of interest to the proposed road program for the county were taken up. The committee named to see the county commissioners on the proposed plan of highway improvement in conjunction with the state, following the suggestion of the Highhway Department, at Harrisburgh, reported favorable action, a report of which has already been published, and the committee endorsed the action taken by the special committee and the commissioners.

Consuls for practically all the towns and townships, as representatives of the association in their respective districts, were suggested and approved, and notices will be sent out in a few days to the representatives selected. These consuls will have charge of the association work in their respective communities and are urged to secure new members for the association, to call local good roads meetings and create sentiment for a connected and systematic plan of county road improvement. These consuls and the executive committee will be called for a special meeting in Washington within a short time. The treasurer of the association, T. C. O'Rorke, reported a total paid membership of 464.

VESTA MINERS ARE OUT ON A STRIKE

Between 2,000 and 3,000 miners employed by the Vesta Coal company struck Thursday morning, and as a consequence Vesta mines Nos. 1, 4, 5, 6 and 7 are idle. The strike was caused by the company deducting $4.00 from each miner who struck some time ago because the company refused a house to a mine worker who had just returned from the hospital, where he had gone after losing one of his legs in an accident at one of the Vesta mines.

The company deducted $1 for each day the men were on a strike. When the miners received their pay they found that their pay envelope was short $4. Now the men want the company to return the amount which so far they have refused to do, hence a strike was declared at all of the above mines on Thursday morning. Just when the trouble will be settled is not known. The company is well fortified in the way of a coal supply, having over 60 barges loaded in their Pittsburg landing, a supply that will run them for several weeks. The mills which they supply have been running at lower than full capacity for some time and it may be several days before the trouble is amicably adjusted.

MRS. DOOLEY'S ADVICE TO WORKING GIRLS

Milwaukee, Wis.—"I wish all girls who work and suffer from functional disorders would profit by my advice and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I was married, when I came home from work at night, I would be just worn out with pains which dragged me down. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me feel like a new woman. I can work from morning until night and it does not bother me, and I wish all girls who suffer as I did would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. H. DOOLEY, 1138 25th Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Working girls everywhere should profit by Mrs. Dooley's experience, and instead of dragging along from day to day with life a burden, give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Chairman Daly, of the Victory Liberty Loan committee, requests that all of those who received posters for the coming loan display them at once Only a limited amount of these posters were secured, and it is necessary that all of them be given a prominent place in the various business houses where they have been placed. The posters are works of art and in addition give publicity to the final loan which the government will ask the people to subscribe for.

SAYS GAVE BACK HIS OLD HEALTH

Federal St., Pittsburg, Man Says Ten-Herbs Restored Him to Health

"There are so many so-called stomach, liver and kidney medicines extensively advertised today that the people are lured away from the good, old-time herbal remedies, such as our forefathers used to take," said the Ten-Herbs man in a recent interview who is daily telling the public the benefits to be derived by taking Ten-Herbs, the purely herbal stomach, liver and kidney remedy

Since Ten-Herbs was so successfully introduced here, many persons are testifying every day to the benefits derived by taking it.

As an instance, Mr. B. C. Straub, residing at No. 1108 Federal street, Pittsburg, who has a large acquaintance here, and is employed by one of Pittsburgh's foremost firms, said:

"After the hard season just passed, which none of us will forget for many a day, I was all run down; I seemed to have no energy or ambition to do anything. My stomach was in a weak condition, and I had no appetite whatever. I could not get a good night's sleep; was constipated, and felt sorely in need of a good medicine to build me up. I heard a good deal how Ten Herbs helped others, and finally decided to try it myself. It seemed to be just the medicine I needed, for it put my nerves in fine shape. I now have a good appetite, sleep well, and my constipation is relieved. Ten-Herbs has given me back my old-time 'pep' and I am feeling like a new man. I certainly feel it my duty to tell others of the great benefit I received from taking it."

Ten-Herbs is sold in Charleroi at Henning's Drug Store.

WOMEN AND WAR

Fierce Fighting Amazons Recruiting of Women in Wartime In Bulgaria.

In times of war, and Bulgaria is almost continually at war with one nation or another, the women are recruited into many departments of service and many regiments and battalions of Bulgaria's fiercest fighters have been women. The sturdiness and energy of the daughters of Bulgaria have vitally affected the stamina of this nation.

Hester Donaldson Jenkins Aemrican educator and a professor in the Constantinople College, explained for the National Geographical Society in a monopraph upon "Bulgaria and Its Women," how much of the strength of Bulgaria is owing to this nation's sturdy womanhood during the past 40 years of this nation's troubled existence. Bulgaria has compelled the admiration of onlooking nations.

Carriage of a Princess.

Bulgarian girls incline to roundness of contour and figure, a clean complexion ripe, rosy mouths and dimples. One of the most beautiful girls I ever saw was a Bulgarian, with a glorious mass of copper-colored waves, a clear, pale, skin. handsomely set grey eyes, a delicate mouth, and small white teeth, and the height and carriage of a princess. "The above description of the women of Bulgaria by Miss Jenkins is by no means exaggerated," said H. H. Von-Schlick of Pittsburgh, Pa., "as a matter of fact, the women of Bulgaria are not only the most beautiful women in the world but are also the healthiest women in the world." The strength and endurance of this people are easily understood.

Fellowship With Nature.

Their fellowship with nature for thousands of years has taught this people the secret of health and long life. They keep the blood pure by the use of a simple preparation composed of roots, barks, leaves, seeds, berries, herbs and flowers. This preparation is known as Bulgarian Blood Tea and a teaspoonful of these herbs brewed in a supful of hot water and taken at bedtime eliminate those fatal toxic poisons which constantly accumulate from the waste food materials and which cause most of the ills from which mankind suffers.

Bulgarian Blood Tea today is used the world over and praised by millions of sufferers fighting disease and warding off old age weaknesses.

They include happy girls budding into womenhood or women crossing precarious thresholds of life. All praise and recommend it. Men regain their strength and vitality, the blood becomes rich and pure and the snap and sparkle of good health returns to those who were in despair. Just ask your druggist today for a trial package of Bulgarian Blood Tea and you will never regret the time you spent in reading this item.

STRAIGHT FROM GERMANY. An advertisement originated and produced for the Victory Liberty Loan by members of the American Expeditionary Force

Are You With Us ?

LAST Christmas the A. E. F.—from bucks to colonels, cooks and corporals — went down into their own pockets for a gift of two million francs, so that more than three thousand fatherless French babies now have Yanks for foster parents.

We like the little rascals, because they stand for all the little Yanks we've left back home.

We're still on the job—

And we're going to stay till we know the world is made a safe place for them—and all other youngsters—to grow up in.

We're here to finish that job—right!
